We, the Mid-Year Class of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-three of the Lancaster High Schools, wish to express our deepest sorrow at the deaths of Mrs. B. W. MRS. PEARL R. McCOLLOUGH

Pearl R. McCollough

Pearl R. McCollough, to whom we have seen fit to dedicate this volume, herself having a public high school and normal school education, taught in both city and county elementary schools. While residing in Helena, Montana, she was greatly interested in music, giving piano lessons to a large class. She has also been interested in all kinds of charities and home mission work, doing her duty in that capacity among the poor mining families in Montana. Of late, she has been closely associated with both state and city government, and when elected to the Lancaster School Board, last year was the mother of six sons and two daughters. Mrs. McCollough is a member of the First Presbyterian Church of this city. For her assistance in many of the minor difficulties of our class we are indeed grateful.

History of the Class of M-1923

In February of the year 1919 there entered the Lancaster Boys' High School, a group of boys, the Mid-Year Class of 1923.

As Mid-Freshmen we, the class of M'1923 elected the following officers: President, John Weaver; Vice President, Richard Snyder; Secretary, William Huber and Treasurer, Edward Price.

As this year came to a close we figured comparatively well in sports. Our watch fobs were also received in this year.

Mid-Sophomores

Having graduated from our first year we were cloaked in the dignity of added years and attached with new zeal those obstacles which confronted us. Through this year we were well guided under these officers: President, Richard Snyder; Vice President, John Schupp; Secretary, Edward Price; Treasurer, Watson B. Lawyer.

This year saw our entrance into the social world. After taking dancing lessons we held many successful dances, also May Walks and a fine "Doggie" Roast.

In December of 1920 we held a class banquet at Hotel Cocalico Ephrata. This combined Masquerade Ball and banquet will be recalled with fondest memories by all who attended. After this we held a skating party at Herr's Ice Pond.

We chose as our class colors, blue and steel and soon received our pennants.

Mid-Juniors

In our Mid-Junior year our officers were: President, John Schupp; Vice President, Fred Johns; Secretary, Alexander Stein and Treasurer, Maurice Cohen.

During this year we continued our social activities with a dance at Maple Grove and a May Walk to Long's Park.

Mid-Seniors

In the year 1922 we at last reached the crown of our ambition, to be dignified and authoratative seniors. To steer our ship through this year the following officers were selected: President, John Schupp; Vice President, Fred Johns; Secretary, John Hertzler; and Treasurer, John Weaver and well did these acquit themselves in our trust.

It was also necessary for the Mid-Seniors to appoint school officials and others.

These officials were as follows: School Cheerleader, Alexander Stein; Class Cheerleader, Henry Buckwalter; Vidette Reporters, J. R. Hertzler and Melvin Brunner.

Later in this year we received our rings and pins which decidedly excell all other class emblems.

Under the leadership of the Mid-Senior class the High School Football Banquet was made the most successful banquet ever held. One of the finest Christmas entertainments ever presented in the High School was given and the leadership and good influence of our class was generally felt throughout the school.

The Mid-Senior Reception and "Prom" were among the finest social events ever accredited to any single class. To the success of these affairs, credit is due to the Social Committee consisting of Chairman Fred Johns, John Weaver, John Schupp, William Andes, Watson B. Lawyer, and William Huber.

And so as the year drew to its close the Mid-Senior class neared the completion of its high school career, as should be, quietly improving, benefitting and adding to the honor of our dear old Alma Mater. The Lancaster Boys' High School. Farewell.

After-word

Just as any body, organization or society is considered successful or unsuccessful by that which it has accomplished, so, let the Mid-Year Class of 1923 be judged.

Let those who judge consider the following before rendering their verdict. Let them consider our clean record in athletics and our high scholastic standing. Let them consider the success of our social actions and the good reputation of our class. Let the flourished condition of the school societies (achieved only under our leadership) be taken into consideration. Let innumerable other ways in which our class has developed the school in general be taken in account. The judgment then must of necessity be that the Mid-Year Class of 1923 was a success from every viewpoint.

May the name of our class remain in the annals of L. H. S. as a standard to which all succeeding classes may look and which they may strive to equal.

Alexander Stein

Girls' Class History

Hazel Gochenaur, M'23

After working and playing together for four years and having spent honest effort in trying to surpass all former classes, (which we admit we have succeeded in doing), it seems only natural that a class of students in that length of time should have formulated a fairly good opinion of themselves, and our only plea is that those who have gone through the same thing will overlook—in remembrance of their own Class History—what seems insufferable conceit and forgive us when we appear to blow our horn too loudly.

The class that entered Stevens High School early in 1919 was little different in appearance perhaps from many former classes, but it soon made known the difference in general ability, tact and the like.

As the school was very crowded at the time, a large percentage from our class was picked to take the regular four year course in three and a half years. That the plan did not work out, however, is not due to lack of ability in the class, but to the fact that it was discovered that later, separate teachers would be required for this group, which from other points of view would be considered unnecessary.

Another event that stands out clearly during our Freshman year is the distributing of May baskets, which had been made by the girls and filled with spring flowers that they had collected. These baskets were given to the members of the faculty on May Day, which all goes to show that even though we were Freshmen we had the right idea.

Up to this time we had been unorganized but in the beginning of our Sophomore year Miss Bitner was appointed Class Dean and the following officers were elected: Mary Cunningham, President; Marion Hocking, Vice President; Edith Gring, Secretary; Freeda Marks, Treasurer.

Through the ability of the officers with the co-operation of the class, and the advice of Miss Bitner a great deal was accomplished during our Sophomore year.

First we selected our class colors, blue and steel, and ordered our pennants. Next basket ball started and our team organized, which even if it did not win laurels during its first season was always able to hold its own. Then we began our social career, as it were, by holding a series of dancing classes. The purpose of these classes was to allow the boys and girls to become better acquainted and, incidentally, as is often the case, what former friendship had existed was severed in the struggle when two partners got together who did not know even the rudiments of dancing.

In the way of social affairs we held a "Doggie" Roast which, although it was the first one to be attempted by the class, was a huge success. The last event was a masked strawride to Ephrata.

In March, 1921, the following girls were elected for officers during our Junior year: Alma Dorsey, President; Hazel Gochenaur, Vice President; Elizabeth Ream, Secretary; Freeda Marks, Treasurer.

During the year judging from the activities or rather the lack of them the class seemed to be doing a social penance. However, this was made up in other forms of activity, especially in basket ball where the class team was turning out very well.

Our Senior year is a distant change from the preceding term since it is one of intense activity scholastically, socially and athletically.

Our class officers who were elected for this year were: Alma Dorsey, unanimously re-elected President; Laura Geltz, Vice President; Hazel Gochenaur, Secretary; Gertrude Eby, Treasurer.

While we were still low Seniors we defeated the graduating class in basket ball, thereby winning the school championship which has not as yet been taken from us. Incidentally, our class has furnished most of the material for the last two varsity teams. In tennis, although the title was taken by an under classman, the runner-up, Helen Groff, was a member of our class.

At the beginning of this year we designed and selected our class rings. But unfortunately, the two sections of the class could not agree and the result was two altogether different rings. This, without doubt, was the best solution of the problem for now each class, perfectly satisfied with itself, enjoys the opinion that it was the other fellow who acted stubbornly and wouldn't give in and who in the end got the worst of the deal.

Socially this year was the climax to the career we had so hopefully begun in our Sophomore year. Besides the Prom and the Reception, which were held during December, we renewed an old school custom and during the month of April held a reception for the graduating class. This custom was very favorably received and was immediately taken up by the lower classes; and our class in turn was entertained by the Senior A's. There are two more receptions that can be added to our list, that one given us by the Faculty and the one given in their honor.

Besides these rather formal affairs there were several moonlight walks and "Doggie" Roasts. Then, too, on Christmas Eve, accompanied by Miss Humphreville and Miss Bitner, the class passed through the city in cars, stopping here and there to sing Christmas carols. It is the latter affair that can truly be called a howling success.

Our class has at all times upheld all school activities and organizations, has given aid when it thought it needed, and withheld criticism when it knew it not to be, and in turn has learned its lesson—the lesson of obedience that all of us must learn, both as a class and individually.

And now as we are about to graduate and to leave this school forever, we earnestly hope that Stevens High School will in some way have been benefitted by our presence, and that the lower classes that we leave behind will find a small amount of inspiration in having known the Mid-Year Class of 1923.

Class Song

(Tune: Sunset Valley)

As the sands of time shift onward through the ages,
As mighty eagles soar into the sky,
As streams flow ever out to meet the ocean
So shall we all press upward, ever high.

CHORUS

We have come now to the time of saddest parting,
For we never shall be here to part again.
Life bids us follow hither,
And each on his way
Shall go through its pleasant roadways with joy.
For is not the glory of the year the harvest?
And can we the harvest reap if hearts rebel?
Let us go now with glad hearts that sing in saying:
"Dearest Alma Mater Mine, farewell!"

Now our hearts are calm with joy that lives in knowing
That we shall strive for higher, nobler things,
And as we say farewell, hearts are o'erflowing
With richened joy that full contentment brings.

CATHERINE KING

Class Poem

Through the high, arched halls of learning,
We have wandered till at last,
Near the door, we turn, and pausing,
Gaze back to review the Past.

Looking back now through the hallway,
We can scarce discern the door
Where, with joyful hearts fast beating,
We had entered years before.

With high hopes we crossed the threshold,
Perseverance led our way
Till we neared the arched portal
Where we pause and turn today.

But why do we stand and ponder?
Our design have we not earned?
With the Future all before us,
Do we wish the Past returned?

Tears flow swiftly forth in longing,
As we look back through the years;
But why should there be such sorrow?
Why not joy instead of tears?

Why should we be sad and sighing
When the Night has said "Amen"?
Every day the sun has risen
And tomorrow 'twill rise again.

Let us on our way with gladness
March where rise the sun's new beams,
And in brisk anticipation
Put away our leaden dreams.

May we lift our faces upward,
To the stars and from them gain
Visions which will guide us higher,
Proving efforts not in vain.

Let the Past be gone, forgotten;
Should our farewell be remorse?
Let us seek our present duties,
Let the Future take its course.

So, let not our hearts be wounded
By this mind-created knife.
Courage find in oft repeating:
—From today our school is Life—

Aileen has the terrible habit of closing one eye, while the other remains open, and going through various motions—and then, she doesn't call it vamping! Her chief ambition is to be an actress. "Ailly" is one of the mainstays of the High School Orchestra, and very much liked by her fellow classmates.

THEODORE W. R. AMWAKE "Queer" "Theodora"

General Course

Eleutherian Literary Society (3); Hi-Y Club (1-2); Glee Club (3-4).

Here's the effeminate boy. The dear thing? He was the subject of continual "razz" in all classes. Why? You must ask him. Aside from all this, he is quite a talented actor and an immaculate dresser. Writing poems, songs and short stories seems to be his hobby, but he just simply abhors school. He may someday take Douglas Fairbank's place. We wish him luck.

This young person gets that unbalanced look of his from all the bad knocks the ladies have given him. He can be seen talking to more better halves in a day than the average fellow in a year—the lounge lizard of the class, so to speak. Though he doesn't look capable, this sweet thing really takes an interest in his work, and also expects to take an honor at F. & M. In regard to his scientific ability, it might be said that he takes an especial interest in telephones.

EDYTHE ANSEL "Teddy"

Classical Course

Motto Committee (4); Florentine Literary Society (4); Scientific Society (4); Athletic Association (4).

We could never learn much about this young lady, but we do know how she can recite in Economics and English classes. She loves to argue and voice her opinions on different subjects. Maybe she's practicing for the time when she will be a lawyer, for this is her ambition. Well, success be yours, Edythe.

CHARLES V. ARMS "Charley"

Commercial Course

Class Track (2); Class Basketball (4); Invitation Committee (4); Commercial Club (3); Hawthorne Literary Society (1); Hi-Y Club (1)

Behold another understudy of the Hoeltzel Winter Garden, this fair young youth is known to be quite the wonder of the Reservoir district, as an all-round ladies man and dance master, but for all his social ability he is a scholar and hard working student.

Charley takes great interest in all political questions and strongly opposes all Prohibitionists.

GILBERT H. BAIR "Gil"

General Course

Scientific Society (1-2-4); Eleutherian Literary Society (3-4), Attendance Committee (3); Hawthorne Literary Society (1); Hi-Y Club (1-2).

"Gil" is a noted member of the Eeta Lotta Pye Club, and a wonderful (?) student. He's so bright that he doesn't have to study; and his marks look it. He is learning to perform minor operations on the watches in his brother's establishment, and, consequently, is one of the main reasons for The Lancaster Rag Company's flourishing junk business. Daily at 1:30, he prances over to Mr. Fisher's office with the absentee list. His most noted achievement up to date is passing.

MARY BINKLE "Bink"

Commercial Course

Vidette Reporter (3-4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Chairman, Prophet Committee (4); Social Committee (4).

"Bink" 's merry laugh can be heard most any time but we've never yet seen her when she wasn't busy. She works from morning to night and apparently enjoys it. "Bink" is interested in amateur theatricals and takes part in a great many plays, pageants, etc. She is considering taking up welfare work. The class wishes you success in whatever you do, "Bink."

ALLEN ROY BOYER "Al"

Commercial Course

Varsity Basketball (1-2-3-4), Captain (4); Class Basketball (2-3-4); Class Baseball (1-2-3-4); Commercial Club (3-4); Tennis Club (3-4).

"No matter how you get them, they all count 2 points"

Have you ever stopped in some Friday night and seen "Sensational Allen" drop the ball in the basket from all the four corners of the universe? Well, you missed one of the eight wonders of the world. We're proud of Allen because he is Captain of the L. H. S. team this year. We don't see how we can lose with "Al" at the helm, for when he gets started—Oh Boy!—Nothing to it. Give 'em a chance "Al". Now "Al" don't simply go up to Lititz for nothing—no sir. Ask "Al" he knows. What's her name kid? Sincerely yours Allen.

SARAH BRENEMAN

Commercial Course

Behold, everyone, the money of our class. Now Sarah, I beg your pardon but I know you'll forgive me when I explain. Sarah is one of the best climbers the class has. She can shin trees, climb poles and even "skin the cat" as was proved at Long's Park last summer. In fact

"She can dance, she can sing,
She can turn a hand spring."

EARL THOMAS BRUCE "Boose"

Classical Course

Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4); Hawthorne Literary Society (1); Scientific Society (1-2); Pythagorean Historical Society (1); Motto Committee (4).

This youthful lady-killer is noted especially for his beautiful hair, with which he takes great pains, as he spends at least one hour every morning in combing it. His lessons do not bother him, but the opposite sex certainly does. He says that his ambition is to become an osteopath, and he is sure to succeed in obtaining patients, especially female ones, as his good looks are irrisistible.

MELVIN F. BRUNNER "Duck"

"Duck" is our fighting athlete, who has won much fame in both Varsity Football and Basketball, together with the many other sports he took part in. He is well liked in all social channels where the ladies do not exist, for in their presence he lingers not at all; this, no doubt, is the reason for his ability as a self-made, hard working student and athlete.

"Never Judge a man by his appearances"

The only bow-legged cheerleader in captivity. Yes sir. When "Bucky" starts to stimulate pep into the gang and starts yelling, —the other team had better go home. They simply won't be able to stand the harmony, thanks to "Bucky". This young chap can manipulate a typewriter also—but he is hard on them. Well "Bucky" intends to become a JOCKEY RACER but because of his yelling ability we believe he would make a good announcer with one of Barnum's side shows.

MARGARET BUCKWALTER "Margy"

Commercial Course

She is one of our brilliant sixty-three who will always shine for the high standard of scholarship set by our illustrious class of Mid-1923. I'll let you in on a secret most of us know. She is very keenly interested in Parkers' Landing. Ask her why?

ROSE I. CANTER "Roses" "Blondie"

Commercial Course

Athletic Association (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Vidette Staff (4); Asst. Business Manager (4); Business Mgr. (4); Annual Staff (4).

"Study was her daily life"

Here we have one of the most studious girls of the M'23 class. But that isn't all "Roses" occupied herself with. She was a good worker for the "Vidette". Did you know that a real Rudolph "Vaselino" has captured Rose's heart? It's out—! No longer my secret.

DOROTHY CASE "Dot" "Casey"

DOROTHY GRUGER "Dot"

These girls admired the M'23 Class so much that they thought they would join us for a half-year. Well, girls we surely enjoyed your company and are sure you will be successful after being with such a large group of scholars.

MAURICE M. COHEN "Morose" "Abby" "Franklin" "Coney"

Classical Course

Hawthorne Literary Society (2-3); Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4), Vice President (3), President (4), Critic (4); Class Track (2-3-4); Class Treasurer (3); Monday Morning Entertainment Committee (4); Scientific Society (3-4); Class Reporter (1-2); Tennis Club (3-4); Horoscope Committee (4); Hi-Y Club (2); Chairman Commencement Committee (4).

Introducing the "Man of Few Words". This boy could talk without ceasing for at least three weeks, and at the end not feel at all exhausted. This love of talking often gets Maurice into trouble, especially when he starts to argue whether Louisiana cost $15,000,000 or $14,999,999.99. He bothers the ladies considerably, and is often seen riding around in a certain well known make of automobile.

I. NEWTON COWAN "Newt" "Brute" "Cow"

General Course

Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4); Motto Committee (4); Vidette Reporter (3); Prophet; Class Baseball (2-3-4); Class Basketball (1-2-3); Varsity Football (4); Varsity Basketball (4); Winner of 1922 Oratorical Contest; Writer of Christmas Play (4); Class Day Committee; Vidette Staff (4); Annual Staff (4); Literary Editor (4).

Behold! Slide your glims onto the literary genius and Elizabethan wit of the class. Though the weaker sex attracts him, he does not seem to attract them, try as he may. His handsome figure and soft voice won him a place on the football team last season. John Hertzler doesn't seem to think that he's over five years old judging from his actions. Another thing—he is the only member of the class who can eat a half of pie in one gulp. In spite of this he has plenty of friends—even the teachers love him.

THOMAS DAWBER "Tommy"

General Course

Commercial Club (3-4); Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4); Glee Club (3-4).

Look at his hair. It is his pride and joy. He has always been rather quiet, and, like his right-hand bower, Theodore, inclined to be lady-like. He is a talented writer of poetry, prose and music. Thomas says he is going to open a beauty parlor after he graduates. We'll patronize him—won't we?

DARIUS HENRY DELBO "Delly" "Benjamin"

General Course

Scientific Society (1-2); Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3); Orchestra (1-2-3-4); Glee Club (2-3-4); Mixed Chorus (4); Class Track (3-4); Hi-Y Club (1-2-4); Pin and Ring Committee (4); Golf Club (3-4); Presentation Committee (4); Student Manager (4).

Behold the boy with the "line." He's got a "line" that would make an Atlantic cable sound like a shoe-string. Kreisler is a "dubb" with a violin compared to our "Benjamin." He is also a "lion" with the ladies—a social "bear".

HILDA DODERER "Dode"

Commercial Course

Society Committee (4).

Here is a star in Commercial English. Hilda thinks we don't know anything about her but a little bird told me that she visits Marietta and that she prefers college boys to country ones. She is crazy over detective stories and writes many good ones herself. We predict her a future writer, with detectives even better than the celebrated Sherlock Holmes.

ALMA DORSEY "Bill"

Commercial Course

Class President (3-4); Class Basketball (2-3-4); Varsity Basketball (4), Captain (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Chairman Entertainment Committee (3-4); Glee Club (4).

Everybody knows this young lady by her beautiful red hair and vivacious temperment. Alma, in addition to being President of the class is quite a basket ball star and has been captain of the varsity for a year. Lately, she has shown a marked ability for collecting "Bills." We wonder if this will have any bearing on her occupation in life, if so, we are sure she will make a most attractive partner.

FLORENCE DUING "Flossie"

Commercial Course

"Flossie" is our champion Flapper. She is always to be heard in every class, even if she doesn't know her lesson. She is a good sport. Everybody knows and likes "Floss". Someday she is going to be some business man's "Tillie the Toiler." She seems to prefer a certain Lock Works in this town. We hope she won't overwork.

Back row: Albert Evans, Alfred Flick, Hulbert Dysinger and Floyd Fraunfelter
Front row: Florence Eager, Miriam Elson, Gertrude Eaby, Marguerite Frantz, Mildred Eyster and Mary Fenstermacher

HULBERT WEIMER DYSINGER "Dice"

General Course

Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4); Hawthorne Literary Society (1); Scientific Society (1-2-3-4); Commercial Club (3-4); Flower Committee (4).

This fellow is a tobacco "king"—errand boy at Steinfeldt's Cigar Store. He knows the ropes. "Dice" is an automobile admirer. He knows all makes by the smell of the exhaust and may some day be Henry Ford's successor. Hulbert was the "speed" of the bookkeeping department.

FLORENCE A. EAGER "Floss"

Classical Course

Glee Club (3-4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Scientific Society (4).

"Floss" is a happy-go-lucky kid, never worries, it seems. She just loves to go automobiling with a certain young man. She says she would "just love to live in the country." We don't know why, but maybe some day we shall find "Floss" living in the country, feeding the chickens and pigs.

GERTRUDE EBY "Gertie" "Trudie"

Classical Course

Prophet; School Pianist (4); Cheer Leader (2); Florentine Literary Society (3-4), Treasurer (3-4); Athletic Society (4); Glee Club (3-4); Class Treasurer (4); Cap and Gown Committee (4); Executive Committee (4).

"Small but a deal o'deviltry"—This phrase characterises "Gertie," or "Trudie" all over. For "Gertie's" "Ha! Ha!" can be heard above all other noises. "Gertie" is our school pianist this year, and a good one at that. She would make an excellent tax collector, as is shown by the way she collects class dues.

MIRIAM ELSON "Mim"

Commercial Course

She is one of the quiet girls in the class. Always minds her own business and expects everyone else to do the same. But is she busy?

Well, I should say,
Got a date for every day.

And so that you will never run out of dates, Mim, we advise you to buy a pound now. They are very cheap.

ALBERT C. W. EVANS "Al"

General Course

Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4); Scientific Society (1-2); Orchestra (1-2-3-4); Student Manager Football (4); Class Track (2-3); Tennis Club, Secretary (4); Sweater Committee (3); Tennis Trophy Committee (4).

This, ladies and gentlemen, is our versatile musician. He can play anything from a Jew's harp to a brass horn, and he was not shy in displaying his ability, as he often entertained (?) us with solos and duets with another buddy musician. "Al" wants to become an electrical engineer, and he is sure to succeed, as he is very fond of currants.

MILDRED G. EYSTER "Milly"

Classical Course

Pin and Ring Committee (3); Glee Club (3); Florentine Society 3-4); Athletic Association (4); Scientific Society (4).

This is our "Milly". She's always fussing about something or some one. But she's a good sport anyway. She is quite a good little dancer, and just can't keep her feet still when she hears music. She's taken a fancy to bugs and all little creepy insects. One of her strange ideas! "Milly" is going to Millersville and expects to teach in the future.

MARY FENSTERMACHER "Blondy" "Fensty"

Glee Club (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Athletic Association (4).

Behold! One of the very few blondes of the M'23. She is one of the leading fun-makers and goes "clucking" about always wearing a broad smile. "Fensty" also is a "shark" at bookkeeping. Alas! In the near future "Blondy" will be the bookkeeper of a rich old bachelor.

ALFRED JAMES FLICK "Tooter"

Commercial Course

Cap and Gown Committee (4); Attendance Committee (3); Scientific Society (1); Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4); Commercial Club (3-4); Treasurer (4); Attendance Committee (4); Glee Club (3-4); Track (4).

This is one of the quiet boys of our class, although he makes quite a lot of noise when he pounds a typewriter. His main line is playing basketball. Alfred is quite a singer. He tells us that without his aid the Glee Club could not exist. You should gaze upon this boy when he is donned in a track suit.

MARGUERITE FRANTZ "Dimples"

General Course

Chairman Motto Committee (4); Invitation Committee (4); Horoscope Committee, Chairman (4); Florentine Literary Society (4); Annual Staff (4).

This lassie joined our ranks a year ago, coming to us from Detroit, Michigan. In the short time that she has been with us she has made many friends. She is very witty and clever, but is a big tease when you know her. We found out that the visit of "Ted" from Altoona was the cause of her recent happiness. Marguerite wants to be a private secretary. We can only say she will be a fine one.

FLOYD S. FRAUNFELTER "Frauny"

Commercial Course

Commercial Club (2-3-4); Attendance Committee (2); Eleutherian Literary Society (3); Sweater Committee (3); Pin and Ring Committee (3); Cap and Gown Committee, Chairman (4).

Hey! What size hat do you wear? How tall did you say you were? Sure that'll fit you. And many other questions and explanations of like significance, would surely make him chairman of some committee, and more than likely the Cap and Gown. "Frauny" is one of the conservative members of the class. It is rumored that his greatest ambition at present is to be a Historian of some renown, but in reality it is believed that he will some day have the honor of the President's seat of a large manufacturing concern.

Front row: Catherine Hardy, Ruth Graeter, Hazel Gochenaur, Anna Frey, Edith Gring and Lavinia Hacker

ANNA FREY "Ann"

Glee Club (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Athletic Association (4).

Here is the young lady of the M'23
Who is so proud of her small tilted nose,
Which she keeps nearly powdered wherever she goes.

What would we do without Ann for many a class room's silent monotony is broken by her shrill Ha! Ha! Success to "Ann" as she is also an expert on the Underwood.

FRANCIS JAY GALLAGHER "France" "Benny" "Gal"

General Course

Presentation Committee (4); Golf Club (4); Tennis Club (3-4); Scientific Society (1-2); Class Baseball (3).

Our Benny! If "Oh! Christmas" is heard, look for "France." He is an addict to the weed and smokes the dirtiest pipe in seven states. His hobbies are girls, tennis "gawf", dancing and EATING. He used to drive a peanut-roastin' Jackson, but now, since he is up in the world, it is a Jordan Sedan. Oh! He expects to go to Notre Dame so here's luck to him.

LAURA GELTZ "Geltzee"

Commercial Course

Social Committee (3-4); Class Vice President (4); President, Florentine Literary Society (4); Horoscope Committee (4); Executive Committee (4); Class Basketball (2-3-4); Varsity (4).

"Geltzee" is one of our best Commercial students and a star forward on the basket ball squad. Her only weaknesses are chewing gum and country Festivals. No doubt many of the latter owe their success to Laura's hearty support. This young lady doesn't say what she wants to be but it is easy to imagine her keeping house for a large family of boys.

GEORGE W. GLICK "Gawge"

General Course

High School Orchestra (2-3-4); Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4); Glee Club (3-4), Accompanist; Hi-Y Club (1-2); School Pianist (4).

This handsome Apollo is Paderewski's only rival. He accompanies the Glee Club and of course, that accounts for the tremendous applause that greets the close of each number. He delights in agreeing with Mr. Pontz that he can play the piano better than anyone else in the school. In spite of his peroxide hair, all the fellows like him and we just know he'll make another Beethoven.

HAZEL GOCHENAUR "Azl"

General Course

Class Vice President (3); Class Secretary (4); Vidette Staff (2); Annual Staff (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4), President (4); Athletic Association (4), President (4); Scientific Society (4); Class Historian (4); Executive Committee (4); Prophet (4).

Hazel has a little pony,
She rides to school each day;
And that is why we wonder
The teachers let her stay.

This tall good looking young girl is the most popular in the class. And would you believe she is only seventeen? Tennis and Basket Ball are the great joys of her life. She says she is going to defeat Suzanne when she gets big.

RUTH GRAETER "Graeter" "Ruthie"

Commercial Course

Athletic Association (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4).

"A true friend and a friend forever"

"Ruthie" is an ardent admirer of the other school in this city named after Thaddeus Stevens. Of course there's a reason. Why is "Graeter" so enthusiastic over hiking? I will let you guess for yourself. Ruth is a very studious girl and shall surely succeed in life as she has in school.

EDITH GRING

Commercial Course

Secretary (2); Social Committee (2); Horoscope Committee (4); Florentine Literary Society (4); Organized Chorus (4); Glee Club (4); Motto Committee (4); Athletic Association (4).

Behold "Sparkplug" the girl with the auburn tresses. Edith is fond of Accomac and loves to go camping there. She intends to be a stenographer but just mention chemistry and you will see her eyes sparkle. Gring's favorite song is "Good Night, Good Night Beloved" and Dick also shows a preference for this. But as the saying goes:

She is full of fun and full of jokes,
But when it comes to working she's a HOAKS.

LAVINIA HACKER "Binney"

Commercial Course

Lavinia is our Movie Journal at S. H. S. She knows all about all the movies coming and going. Yes, and she knows the whole Movie history. If you want to see a good show ask Lavinia where to go.

CATHARINE HARDY "Kit"

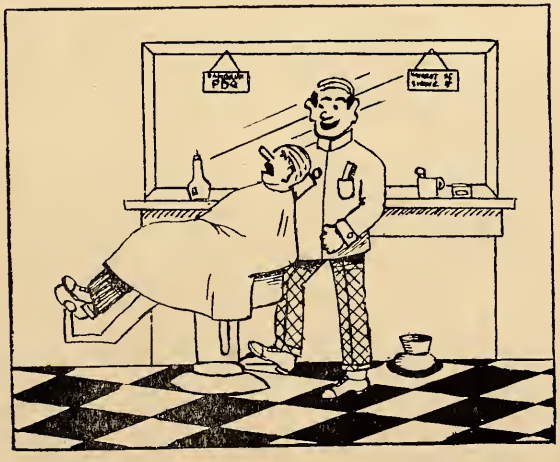
Commercial Course

"Kit" is the biggest flirt, bluffer and everything the school ever had. She is always talking about someone, now it is Bud. Kit likes Bookkeeping and certainly can turn out very neat books. Miss Diller is her encyclopedia and whenever she has a question she goes to Miss Diller for information. She was voted the champion talker of the class and we warn no one to contest this title because they are sure to lose.



FROSH :—" Say, how long do I have to wait for a shave?
BARBER :—" About three years, sonny."

Back row: Paul Huber, John Hertzler, William Huber, Richard Hoak and Ralph Hart
Front row: Marion Hocking, Mildred Haug, Edith Harnly and Charlotta Hatfield

EDITH HARNLY "Ed"

Commercial Course

Cheerleader (4); Athletic Club (4); Social Committee (4); Florentine Literary Society (4).

Edith is a great cheerleader. She is always ready to yell her head off for S. H. S. and after many a game poor "Ed" went home with a red nose and so hoarse she couldn't talk. Our victories are due to "Ed's" leading and thunderous shouting.

GEORGE RALPH HART "Harty"

Commercial Course

Commercial Club (3-4), Chairman Attendance Committee (4); Eleutherian Literary Society (3-4); Hawthorne Literary Society (1-2); Horoscope Committee (4); Scientific Society (3); Hi-Y Club (1).

"Laugh and the world laughs with you"

That is "Harty's" motto and we believe in it for he has proven his worth to us. No matter how tough a thing may be "Harty" always comes up smiling. Why "Harty" even laughs when Mr. Pontz gives him round circles in his daily recitation book for talking. By the way, "Harty" is a kidder and is known throughout the school for his witty sayings and practical jokes. Because of his kidding ability, "Harty" ought to get a job in an aquarium—kidding the goldfish.

CHARLOTTA HATFIELD "Stoke" "Hatty"

Social Committee, Chairman (2); Pennant Committee, Chairman (2); Flower Committee, Chairman (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Athletic Association (4); Glee Club (4).

Here is a girl that has displayed her class spirit more than any one else in the class. I am sure she would make a good business woman, but I am afraid she will never reach the business world. She was seen looking at the diamonds in the jeweler's window lately.

MILDRED HAUG

Motto Committee (3); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Glee Club (3-4).

Here's the double of Sarah. Mildred is the one of whom Sarah was talking when she said this girl could walk 25 miles an hour. That's supposed to be true, too. Mildred should be a teacher because of her ability to talk well and say something. She is fond of athletics and once went on a hike fifty miles long.

JOHN R. HERTZLER "Johnny"

Classical Course

Sweater Committee (3); Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4), Treasurer (3), Vice President (4); Vidette Staff (4), Assistant Editor (4), Editor in Chief (4); Scientific Society (4); Class Secretary (4); Hi-Y Club 2-4); Vidette Reporter (4); Commencement Committee (4).

This young man aspires to be the future editor of the "Dillerville Dill-Pickle" because of his success as Editor in Chief of our Little Sentinel. John is quite a baseball fan, but it usually happens that his favorite team wins the cellar championship. But, seriously speaking, John is a very popular fellow, and the best wishes of the class follow him in whatever he may adopt as his life work.

RICHARD D. HOAK "Dick" "Cuckoo"

General Course

Scientific Society (1-2-3-4), Critic (4); Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4), Vice President (4); Hawthorne Literary Society (1); Vidette Staff (3), Asst. Adv. Mgr.; Annual Staff (4), Circulation Mgr.; Social Committee, (2); Monday Morning Committee, Chairman (4); Class Day Committee, Chairman (4); Mixed Chorus (4); Glee Club (4); Commercial Club (4); Prophet; Christmas Play (4).

Was Darwin right? The answer is: Hoak. Not because of his looks but because of his actions. He is infatuated by a young flame from Stevens' High, but we won't mention her name for fear of hurting Edith's feeling. He also wrote a book on "Why I Like Red Hair", unfinished as yet because of a lack of sufficient adjectives to express his feelings. His chief occupations in his Senior year were loafing in the Vidette Room and keeping Mr. Pontz amused by his witty remarks.

MARION HOCKING "Mar-i-On"

Commercial Course

Prophet (4); Florentine Literary Society (4); Glee Club (3-4); Vice President (2); Social Committee (3); Sweater and Pennant Committee (2).

This is a serious case. Marion is colorblind, she sees nothing and prefers nothing but "White". She is very persistent that a woman's place is in the home and not in politics. All right, Marion—we don't blame you in the least. All good wishes and best regards for your future happiness from the class of M'23. "Oh, Mar-i-on."

JACK E. HUBER "Jack"

General Course

Scientific Society (2-3); Eleutherian Literary Society, (2-3-4); Christmas Play (4).

Jack took first honor—for being sent to the office. He can do less without being caught than any other person living or dead. He is Mr. Fisher's especial friend because of his fine tardy record. Jack is absolutely in the office so much that when not there it seems as though a fixture is lacking. But his large innocent blue eyes generally get him out of trouble. We know he'll make a success as a poet or author for he possesses the one premier requisite—an abundant crop of wavy hair.

PAUL F. HUBER "Bagears"

General Course

Scientific Society (3-4); Eleutherian Literary Society (3); Hi-Y Club (1-2); Christmas Play (4).

The most notable characteristic of this pretty child is his laugh, which he generally exercises at the most serious moments. He is quite a ladies' man, stepping out with them considerably here of late. He is the personification of electricity and some of his arguments in regard to radio are convincing if not accurate. His great love of this mysterious force will probably lead him to the electric chair. Though his face does not show much intelligence, we have hopes for him as one of the exhibits peculiar to side shows at the county fair.

WILLIAM HUBER "Bill"

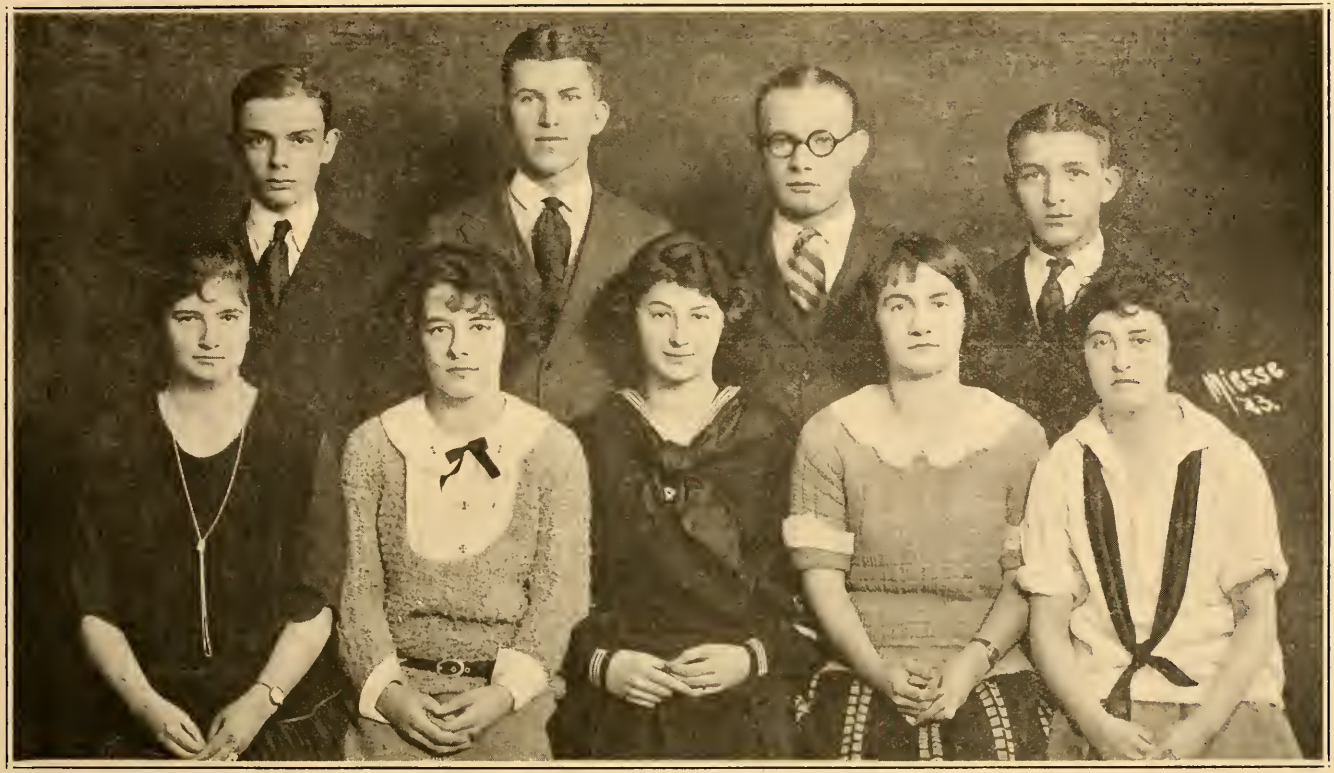
General Course

Art Editor of Vidette (3); Social Committee (1-2-3-4); Chairman (1); Class Secretary (2); Eleutherian Literary Society (3-4); Scientific Society (3-4); Horoscope Committee (4); Pin and Ring Committee (4); Banner Committee (4); Sweater Committee (3); Pennant Committee (1).

This wild-eyed creature is the class smear king. He is only slightly shy in the hair line or he would be a really great artist—like Goldberg, f'rinstance. He wiggles a wicked toe when on the waxed plank where his graceful form can generally be seen. He draws beautiful pieces of physics apparatus for the less gifted when Mr. Herr is in his "office." But anyway the class wishes him every success in the paint business.



Back row: John Kraft, Earl Jeffries, Edward Kirchner and Watson Lawyer
Front row: Mary Kendig, Marion Kurtz, Frances Lampe, Catherine King and Martha King

DAVID EARL JEFFRIES "Jeff"

General Course

Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3); Scientific Society (2-3); Flower Committee (4); Pennant Committee (2); Banner Committee, Chairman (4).

Pity the poor animals! "Jeff" is a famous hunter and he can hit the side of a house at five paces, two times out of three, which is some feat—for Jeff, and now that a gun has been invented to shoot around a corner, no one is perfectly safe. "Mutt" should be his name, because like the man in the funny papers, he is a six-footer. Since getting that Ford, getting some one to adorn the other seat is not a bit hard. But girls, don't get too close or you might find the muzzle of a ".45" pressing into your ribs, because "Jeff" is a walking arsenal, and always carries some deadly weapon.

FRED D. JOHNS "Freddie"

Commercial Course

Class Vice President (3-4); Commercial Club (3); Social Committee (2-3-4), Chairman (4); Class Prophet; Pennant Committee (2); Class Basketball (1-2), Manager (2); Class Track (1-2-3-4), Manager (2); Hi-Y Club (1-2); Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3); Scientific Society (1-2); Tennis Club (1-2-3-4).

"O give me this and—give me that."

Introducing the guy that is always hunting money. What's next Fred? Well anyway Freddie is our able chairman of the social committee and also the woman-hater of the class—what? Freddie tells us that he is going into the movies when he is through at Yale. No kidding. Yes—as a scene shifter. We wish you luck Fred but with your line of goods we advise you to go down to Washington and demand a seat in the Senate.

MARY R. KENDIG "Bud" "Marie"

Classical Course

Flower Committee (4); Presentation Committee (4); Athletic Association (4); Florentine Literary Society (4).

Alas! this poor child is in love. Yes, indeed. Her thoughts wander far from lessons. She dreams of Bud. But, despite this fact, she is very good-natured and jolly. We like her hats. We predict that some day she'll live in a snug little love nest for two. We send you and ——— our best wishes.

CATHARINE KING "Catharine"

Commercial Course

Flower and Motto Committee (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Glee Club (4).

This young lady is rapidly winning fame as a French correspondent and although there is a great deal of opposition from the rest of the class, Catharine no doubt holds first place. Catharine is very quiet and except when she has just received a letter from Pierre is seldom heard from. One day in a burst of confidence she let me read one of her letters. The class wished you "Bon Voyage" on all your future trips to France, Catharine.

MARTHA KING "Martie" "King"

Commercial Course

Athletic Association (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4).

"Life is too short to let unhappy thoughts enter one's mind"

A maiden petite and cherie is our little "Martie" always radiant with happiness. She is a good little student and a friend to everyone in need. She is scarcely ever seen without her "chum" "Sauer", who is several heads taller than she. The future holds great wonders for this little lassie of the dark tresses. Our sincere wishes go with you, Martha.

ALBERT EDWARD JOHN KIRCHNER "Red"

Commercial Course

Social Committee (1-2); Class Prophet; Chairman of Prophets; Commercial Club (3-4); Eleutherian Literary Society (3-4); Hawthorne Literary Society (2); Scientific Society (2); Roosevelt Hi-Y Club (1-2).

The fashion plate of L. H. S. "Ed" is one of these "strictly English" dressers. His favorite subject is bookkeeping. He says he would like it much better if he could get a hold of Mr. List's "Key".

"Ed" quite regularly attends Hoeltzel's Academy of Learning. "Ed" is also a wonderful dancer. Girls would rather dance with "Ed" than with Rudolph Valentino.

JOHN HENRY KRAFT "Johnnie"

General Course

Scientific Society (1-2-4); Commercial Club (4); Pin Committee (4); Hi-Y Club (2).

The quietest lad in the class. He was very studious and always earned high marks. We are told that he is mechanically inclined and may some day be running a trolley line to Mars. "Johnnie" drives a Studebaker, and works in his daddie's grocery store. That's all.

MARION KURTZ "Narnie"

Classical Course

Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Scientific Society (4).

"Narnie" is the clown of the class—for who has not been forced into bursts of laughter by her various antics? As is shown by her activity list, "Narnie's" interest lies in some other sphere than S. H. S. "Narnie's" ambition is to have a cozy little love nest just for two. Go to it "Narnie"! the best wishes of M'23 go with you and———Deacon.

FRANCES P. LAMPE ."Fan"

Classical Course

Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Glee Club (3); Scientific Society (4); Athletic Association (4); Annual Staff (4); Horoscope Committee (4).

Behold! The Lady of Wisdom! Frances is quiet but when she speaks we listen, dazed at the amount of knowledge and big words that are stored in her cranium. She is very original, and has written some clever stories. Her pet ambition is to become an English teacher and we're sure she'll be a successful one.

WATSON BERTRAM LAWYER JR. "Baron"

Commercial Course

Class Treasurer (2); Social Committee (2-3-4); Commercial Club, Vice President (3), President (4); Eleutherian Literary Society (4); Invitation Committee (4); Varsity Track (4); Class Track, Manager (3-4); Hi-Y Club (1-2); Pennant Committee (2); Chief Clerk, Annual Staff (4); Golf Club (4); Horoscope Committee (4).

The bashful lover of our class. He's the proud president of the Commercial Club. Watson should have had an honor and just one thing kept him from getting it, his marks.

Watson is a golf enthusiast. He swings a wicked golf club. Watson goes to many dances too. He likes to watch the boys and girls go through the pretty motions.

Back row: Dean McCullough, Jay Morrison, Kenneth Miller, George Mease and Harry Miller
Front row: Margaret Painter, Edith Manning, Lillian Mathiot, Bertha Lestz, Freeda Marks and Miriam Moedinger

BERTHA LESTZ "Bopsy" "Bobbie"

Commercial Course

Athletic Association (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Sweater Committee (3); Vidette Staff (4); Annual Staff (4); Prophet (4).

"Bobbie" is the little girl
With the curly hair;
Always here and always there
Helping all who need her care.

"Bobbie" is the brightest girl in the class. She is always ready to help the less fortunate ones. She has helped to make the Vidette a success. Bertha especially likes kisses. But we aren't going to tell you which kind.

EDITH G. MANNING "Manning"

Commercial Course

Athletic Association (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4).

"Sweet and demure, good and pure,
None can find a friend that's truer."

Edith certainly is a wonderful little friend to have. Everyone will agree to this. And typewrite??? Her nimble fingers pass like a streak of lightning over the ivories of the "Underwood." Some day we shall hear of her as the champion typist of the world. Success to you, Edith.

FREEDA MARKS "Fritzie"

Classical Course

Class Treasurer (2-3); Florentine Literary Society (3); Flower Committee (4); Executive Committee (4); Athletic Association (4); Glee Club (3).

When "Fritzie" came to us in our Freshman year, she rode her bicycle to school every day—to reduce! She has a very happy-go-lucky nature. "Fritzie" is going to be a nurse. Success be yours "Fritzie".

LILLIAN MATHIOT "Lill"

Commercial Course

"Lill" is a good sport and a champion wit. If you don't believe it go to the Fulton with her. She really entertains you more than the show. If you haven't any money ask "Lill" she always has, for she could never miss her "Coca Cola and Soft Pretzel" after school.

DEAN R. McCULLOUGH "Mack" "Irish"

General Course

Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4); Hawthorne Literary Society (1); Class Basketball (2); Monday Morning Committee (4); Horoscope Committee, Chairman; Social Committee, (2); Flower Committee.

Dean is the court dancer of the class, especially when hooked up with the "Queen." He is the only Irish Frenchman known to science and he reads (?) the language better than its inventor. But the acme of his brilliancy is displayed in his marvelous excuses, and the suggestion of one so hackneyed as the sick grandmother joke, would hurt his feelings. As for ambitions—he makes 'em to order. His latest is to bridge the Amazon River. He used to be rather studious, but of late there has been an evil influence working on him. Don't tell him but it is small and has blue eyes.

GEORGE C. MEASE "Measy"

Classical Course

Hawthorne Literary Society (1-2).

This modest young man is one of the quietest fellows in the class. In fact, many of his teachers wish he would make a little more noise, so as to break the monotony of having Cohen make all the noise. Mease is a hard-working fellow, as his marks will testify. He is well-liked among his classmates, and we wish him all sorts of success in whatever he may undertake.

HARRY E. MILLER "Heck"

Commercial Course

Hi-Y Club (1-2); Glee Club (3); Commercial Club (3-4); Eleutherian Literary Society (4); Cap and Gown Committee (4); Scientific Society (1-2).

"Believe me if all those endearing young charms"

Did you see Ann? Heck certainly worries a lot about her. But why shouldn't he—he has the right to. Heck wants to be a bookkeeper when he is through with school but we're afraid there isn't enough money in that business to support himself and his proposed. All we can say Harry is—"Always be true to her."

KENNETH ROSS MILLER "Ken"

General Course

Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4); Treasurer (3); Scientific Society (1-2-3-4); Hawthorne Literary Society (1); Monday Morning Program Committee (4); Orchestra (3-4).

Behold, friends, the brains of the class. If you ever want to know anything about any subject on the curriculum, ask "Ken". Kenneth is also a trombonist of note, but, sad to tell, it happens to be a sour note. "Ken's" specialty is playing jazz. He has become so proficient in this art, that he now plays several selections with his foot. "Ken" will either become a teacher of Profane Languages in S. H. S. or join Paul Whiteman's Orchestra, but whatever he does, he is sure to succeed.

MIRIAM MOEDINGER "Mim"

General Course

Social Committee, Chairman (4); Executive Committee (4); Pin and Ring Committee (4); Scientific Society (4); Class Basketball (3); Chairman, Invitation Committee (4); Presentation Committee (4).

This is the young lady with the sarcastical tongue and her greatest delight is to use it razzing the men. However "Mim" is very energetic and all the committees that she served in were sure to be a success. "Mim" doesn't say what she intends to be, but we all know her ambition is to conduct a "Henry (hennery)".

JAY H. MORRISON "Pete" "Speed"

Glee Club (3-4); Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4);, Chairman Attendance Committee (4); Class Track (4); Commercial Club (3-4); Cap and Gown Committee; Golf Club (3-4); Hi-Y Club; Hawthorne Literary Society (3).

"Pete," our speed typist and salesman, does not really realize the great pains he has caused the student body in endeavoring to break his record. He is also a salesman, with record of never losing a customer, this of course is due to Mr. Seltzer's training. It has often been wondered if "Pete" has ever stopped to consider the ladies, for many there are that cast their winning smiles, but "not so winning are they" cries "Pete"

MARGARET PAINTER

Commercial Course

"Margy" deserves the best compliment we can give her, that of being the best natured girl ever living. Her never losing her temper where she ought to is a source of wonder to many of us. She is always ready to help some one no matter what she has to do. "Margy" is a fine housekeeper and joy to the one who finds that out for he will have a priceless possession.

Back row: Edward Price, Ivan Ritz, Mary Reese, Alice Sauer, John Schupp and Otto Schneebeli
Front row: Louise Roy, Mary Ruth, Elizabeth Ream, Burnes Zahm and Iva Schaeffer

EDWARD PRICE "Eddie"

General Course

Scientific Society (2-3-4), President (4); Eleutherian Literary Society (4); Commercial Club (4); Student Manager (4); Class Secretary (2); Class Treasurer (1); Annual Staff (4); Hi-Y Club (1-2); Class Track (1); Midget Basketball (2); Christmas Play (4).

Who would expect this midget to be one of the best students in the class? One wonders where he packs all his brains. Being so small, he is often overlooked when the absentee list is sent in, and the girls also are unable to see him when he asks to take them home from class affairs, and he consequently gets many refusals. Even though he is so small, he talks over the heads of a good many fellows, and is a valuable article for such a small Price.

ELIZABETH REAM "Lib" "Betty"

Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Athletic Association (4); Class Secretary (3).

What would "Lib" do if she were not able to talk and ask questions.

Some think she is queer,
Others think she is sincere.
But I'll tell you folks,
A few little Jokes.

This young lassie prefers to be an old-maid school teacher or a rich man's darling.

MARY REESE

Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Glee Club (3-4); Basketball (2).

Mary is one of the most quiet and stately girls of the class. Her idea of happiness is when one of the S. H. S. faculty accepts an invitation to spend the evening at her home. We think she will make a fine English teacher if she chooses the teaching profession.

IVAN HARTLEY RITZ "Warbler"

General Course

Scientific Society (1-2); Eleutherian Literary Society (3-4); Glee Club (3-4); Christmas Entertainment Committee (4); Mixed Chorus (4).

Ivan goes to church regularly. He must, he's a member of the church choir. He is also a regular attendant at dances. Ivan is never with a girl on Sunday night—until after church. They must take l-o-n-g, l-o-n-g walks because most every Monday morning Ivan seems half-asleep.

LOUISE ROY "Louise"

Classical Course

Chairman Social Committee (3); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Treasurer (4); President Scientific Society (4); Glee Club (3-4).

Louise is a member of the study class held on the rear row of the platform every morning and she is sure to come rushing up at the end of the line with a "Who has her Physics problems?" Louise's favorite novel is Vanity Fair since it dwells a great deal upon the history of the "Sedley" family. We hear from a reliable source that your ambition is to be a prima donna, and we'll all agree that you have the makin's of one, Louise.

MARY RUTH "Rufus" "Topsey"

General Course

Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Scientific Society (4); Athletic Association (4); Class Basketball (1-2-3); Glee Club (3); Constitution Committee (4); Social Committee (2-4); Tennis Club (3-4).

On first acquaintance one would think Mary quiet—but since you know her—O My! Mary's beautiful auburn hair is a source of envy to many girls. "Topsey's" main question for discussion is—"Why can't women be on an equal basis with men?"

BURNES SAHM "Burny" "Benny"

Commercial Course

Athletic Association (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4).

"If God can love them all,
Why can't I love a dozen?"

"Benny" is the jolly fun-maker of our class. A frown never disfigures her smiling countenance. How we missed "Benny" when she stayed away from school to attend a theater party (?) occasionally! There seems to be some attraction in the West End at a certain College for Burnes. Do you wonder what it is? Just read the verse above and you might understand. However, "Benny" is a "speedking" on the "Underwood" and shall some day be the President's private secretary.

ALICE SAUER "Al" "Sauer"

Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Athletic Association (4).

"Al" is one of the "Three Wise Women of Stevens High," Hilda, Martha and "Al". Her name does not portray any trait in her character. "Al" is one of the best natured girls and always willing to help some poor straggler to pass.

IVA SCHAEFFER

Commercial Course

Reporter (4); Florentine Literary Society (4); Cap and Gown Committee (4); Executive Committee (4); Invitation Committee (4); Chief Clerk (4).

Iva is one of the most charming girls in our class. She is also one of our shining stars in scholarship. Iva may some day be a grand and glorious Senatoress and who knows maybe Presidentess. But we are sure if she ever is, Elizabeth will be her Secretary of State.

OTTO SCHNEEBELI "Ot" "Smoogs"

General Course

Scientific Society (3-4); Eleutherian Literary Society (1); Attendance Committee, Chairman (4); Class Basketball (3); Class Baseball (2-3); Class Track (2-3); Varsity Football (4); Varsity Basketball (4); Hi-Y Club (2).

When our friend Otto went around the ends in football, sighs and cries of "Isn't he wonderful" were heard all along the side lines. But in a basketball uniform with his hair all pasted down, Oh! Girls! He is a good dancer but doesn't want anyone to know it, for fear they might expect him to prove it. But don't ever call him "Smoogs" because papa doesn't like that name.

JOHN WILLIAM SCHUPP "Queer" "Boogy" "Benji"

General Course

Class Baseball (1); Class Basketball (1-2); Tennis Varsity (2); Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4); Scientific Society (3-4); Tennis Club (1-2-3-4), Treasurer (2), Vice President (3); Commercial Club (3-4), Librarian (3); Hi-Y Club (1-2-4); Social Committee (2-3-4), Chairman (2); Pennant Committee, Chairman (2); Cap and Gown Committee (4); Invitation Committee (4); Presentation Committee (4); Christmas Play (4); Class Vice President (2); Class President (3-4).

A heart crusher, an able class president and a "mean man" with a tennis racquet. He claims the shiniest hair this side of Spain, and is usually known as "Rudolph Valentino's only rival." He is his mother's pride and joy and when he gets into his neatly pressed trousers and patent leathers he sure can "strut". "Schuppy" has led his class through many difficulties and we are sure that with the business ability exhibited, he wlil be a great success in life. Best wishes.

FLOSSIE G. SECHRIST "Flossie"

Classical Course

Vidette Staff (3); Scientific Society (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Glee Club (3-4); Athletic Association (4).

Here is one of the most studious girls of our class. She's a shark in all her studies. We often wondered if Flossie never got tired sharing her knowledge for every one went to her for help. But she was always willing to do anything for one. She doesn't care for sports or dancing and so we're sure she'll make a good home for some one, although she says she'll teach and be an old maid.

JOHN SEITZ "Duke"

Commercial Course

Commercial Club (3-4); Glee Club (2-3-4); Hi-Y Club (1-2); Class Track Team (2-3); Football Squad ; Attendance Committee (3-4).

He wears glove 'neverything. One can never forget Oscar. If by chance you forget his face, you will immediately recognize him when you gaze upon the lower extremeties of his pedal appendages, namely, feet. Now use your imagination. Try to imagine this "gentleman" on a track team, and then stretch it further and imagine him playing football.

ROBERT R. SESSEMAN "Young un"

Commercial Course

Commercial Club (3-4); Glee Club (3-4); Tennis Club (4).

"Ah there you are, my dear boy!" Folks allow me to introduce to you the small boy with the large basso voice. This young man cuts more capers than a one-horse-clown, all in his own queer way. It has often been said that the Kiddie-cars were installed in L. H. S. for his pleasure and benefit. Please do not lose hope Robert! Some day, why you'll grow up just like a man and shave and everything.

JOHN K. SHENK "Shenky"

Commercial Course

Commercial Club (3-4), Attendance Committee (4); Hi-Y Club (1-2); Eleutherian Literary Society (2); Hawthorne Literary Society (2).

"Help the others and they will help you"

"Shenky" is one of Lancaster High's best sports and—he is a Commercial student at that. Mr. Weller never needs to urge this young fellow to attend and support any athletic activity. "Shenky" certainly does like sports and is always on deck. John we believe you would make a good minister where you could continue to help others. Good luck "Shenky".

MARY SHENK "Mary"

Commercial Course

Cap and Gown Committee (4); Florentine Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (4).

Mary had a little book,
'Twas called her correspondence;
But Mary didn't like to look,
Into this bit of nonsense.

Very early in her school career this young lady showed her ability to become a someone's private secretary. I wonder? But maybe she will be a music teacher.

JACK A. SHINDLE "Jack"

General Course

Scientific Society (2-4); Eleutherian Literary Society (4); Tennis Club (2-3); Golf Club (3-4); Sweater Committee, Chairman (3); Pin and Ring Committee (4); Hi-Y Club (1).

Every class has its argumentative person, always ready and willing to partake in a good, heated argument. This is "it." Through the summer, Jack was a dispenser of delicacies, commonly termed a "soda slapper." He used to play tennis but now it is "gawf" (the old man's game). He is easily "nabbed" so must look out for "flappers" especially those with a dark complection. We think Jack would like to go to State and may there become famous.

ELIZABETH SHUBROOKS "Betty"

Classical Course

Scientific Society (4).

About 9:14 every morning and 1:31 every afternon, "Betty" comes flying breathlessly into the room, generally saying between catch breaths—"I saw—!" "Betty" surely believes in the motto: "Too much work makes Jack a dull boy". For she could never be accused of studying too hard. Her favorite pastime is to fall asleep during classes.

FREDERICK W. SLAUGH

Commercial Course

Eleutherian Literary Society (3); Glee Club (3); Commercial Club .ass Reporter (1); Roosevelt Hi-Y Club (1); Scientific Society (1).

"Hopper" Slaugh is the only Sunday School teacher in the class. He is also the President of the Luther League at his church. Quite a religious boy, ain't? Fred has but one weakness, her name is Verne. He gets all excited when he reads her letters. He receives them every morning by special delivery, I mean her brother.

EDITH K. SMITH "Dede" "Smithy"

Classical Course

Vidette Reporter (3); Florentine Literary Society (2-3-4); Secretary Literary Society (3); Scientific Society (4); Vice President Scientific Society (4); Social Committee (3); Glee Club (3-4).

Here we have one of the most popular girls in the class—with both boys and girls. As for dancing—she is a second Mrs. Vernon Castle. After graduating from a Domestic Science School "Dede" will make a very fine house keeper for————!

ALICE SNYDER "Alice"

Commercial Course

Florentine Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (4).

Alice had a dream one day,
Just like her old ancestor
But her dream was much much nicer,
For in it, he caressed her.

Who? Why, her father of course. Alice is just a jolly little girl. Never causes any great disturbance in class. But she is a good scholar. She can read her shorthand notes at seventy-five miles an hour. Just imagine Alice in some lawyer's office writing shorthand notes by the hours. She has our sympathy and best wishes for a successful career.

CARL RICHARD SNYDER "Dick"

Classical Course

Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4); Hawthorne Literary Society (1); Scientific Society (1-2-3-4); Glee Club (1-2-3-4); Orchestra (4); Class Vice President (1); Class President (2); Motto Committee, Chairman (4); Christmas Entertainment Committee, Chairman (4); Invitation Committee (4); Class Day Committee; Prophet.

Snyder's motto is: I know it all. He also admits that Caruso has nothing on him. He makes the rest of the Glee Club look like a back fence chorus. He is very crazy over "buns". In fact, he can be seen coming to school with one every day. We wonder what would happen if he bit into it. He is a disciple of Terpsichore, which is not the name of a prominent movie actor, and admits that he is the best dancer in the class, not even barring McCollough.

Back row: Alexander Stein, John Weaver, Stanley Wiker, Donald Stroeble, Paul W. Stauffer and Wm. Snyder
Front row: Stella Westman, Frances Weaver, Mary Horting, Jeanette Strauss and Anna Swayne

MARY ANN HORTING "Mary"

Classical Course

Class Basketball (2-3-4); Glee Club (3-4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Scientific Society (4); Athletic Association (4).

Attention folks! This is the one girl of our class who can talk and talk and yet not say much. She talks incessantly of her family. If you want any news, ask Mary. She's better than the News Journal. She visits the movies quite often and then how she raves afterwards! Her hobby is making faces. She played guard on the basket ball team and she was on the varsity in her Senior year. Her work deserves much credit. She intends to teach.

WILLIAM S. SNYDER "Bill"

General Course

Hawthorne Literary Society (2); Class Baseball (2-3-4); Captain (3).

The most noted "Greek" baseball player in the United States. If you ever see a fellow in a faded baseball outfit, pitching in a game with a bunch of nine year olds, that's Bill. As the pitcher for our team in the class league, his hooks hung up the championship in our attic. He is also a first-class writer of last class poetry and when not doing anything else, has a cornet down on its back, begging for mercy.

PAUL W. STAUFFER "Pete"

Commercial Course

Commercial Club (3-4); Hi-Y Club (1-2).

"Too much is not enough"

"Pete" tells us that the teachers at L. H. S. can't give him enough to do. "Pete" simply eats work. Although "Pete" is a good stenographer, he intentionally makes errors in his transcription work so that he can do it over again and be kept busy. Lancaster High will certainly miss "Pete" when he gets the white paper and leaves. If you are as much a glutton for punishment as you are for work—take up prize fighting.

ALEXANDER THEODORE STEIN "Alex"

Classical Course

Hawthorne Literary Society (1); Eleutherian Literary Society (2-3-4), Critic (4), President (4); Scientific Society (1-2-3-4), Secretary (4); Hi-Y Club (1-2); Glee Club (3-4); Class Secretary (2); Class Cheerleader (3); School Cheerleader (4); Chairman of High School Football Banquet Committee (4); Motto Committee (4); Class Track (1-2-3); Horoscope Committee (4); Attendance Committee (3).

Stein claims the distinction of running a close second to Cohen when it comes to making a noise. However, he put his ability to practical use as our star cheerleader. Stein is very fond of outdoor sports, especially horseback riding. The trouble is that he brings this ability into use while studying Virgil. Stein has considerable argumentative ability and this will no doubt serve him well after he becomes a noted attorney.

JEANNETTE STRAUSS "Jenny" "Goofy"

Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Athletic Association (4); Basketball (2-3-4).

Just look at those large brown wicked eyes that wander from corner to corner. We often wonder why she wears that pecular charm about her neck, and why she receives so many letters post marked New York.

DONALD S. STROEBLE "Don"

General Course

Glee Club (3-4); Mixed Chorus (3-4); Class Baseball (2); Class Basketball (2-3); Tennis Club (2-3-4), Vice President (4).

"Don" is an Adonis without a Venus. His blond beauty still rests under a cloud, but since he has the use of that Chevrolet, it oughtn't be long. He made a great hit with the girls at the football games, and it has been rumored that Coach Weller is going to permanently hire him to swell the gate receipts by exhibiting himself in a uniform. His favorite resort is Klugh's store, where he flirts with the pictures on the catsup bottles just to keep his hand in.

ANNA SWAYNE "Ann" "Swaynee"

Classical Course

Class Basketball (2); Tennis Club (3-4); Glee Club (3-4).

Every class has its students, athletes, man-haters and married women and "Swaynee" without doubt is matrimonially inclined. Up to about a year ago we heard a good deal about a course at State College but all such ambitious ideas have since been dropped and "Swaynee" is now spending her spare time in the "White Goods" department at one of the local stores. No, she is not interested in "white goods."

JOHN D. WEAVER "Jawn"

Commercial Course

Class President (1); Commercial Club (1-2); Hawthorne Literary Society (1-2); Eleutherian Literary Society (3); Scientific Society (1-2); Social Comittee (2-3-4); Class Track (1-2); Class Basketball (1-2-3-4); Class Treasurer (4); Vidette Staff (4); Hi-Y Club (1-2-3-4); Tennis Club (2-3); Golf Club (3).

"Jawn" makes quite a hit with the ladies. He has a suit fo every day in the week. One day a month "Jawn" stays out of school so that he can have IT pressed. "Jawn" is going to college and learn to be an expert accountant. We must admit, "Jawn" surely can juggle with figures.

FRANCES WEAVER

Classical Course

Cap and Gown Committee (4); Basketball (1-2-3); Glee Club (4); Sweater Committee (3); Motto Committee (4); Florentine Literary Society (4).

Here's Francie, one of the brightest girls in the class. Francis a fine athlete especially in Basketball, but she never neglects her lessons. As a reward she was third honor girl. Isn't that fine?

STELLA WESTMAN

Commercial Course

Athletic Association (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Cheer Leader (3-4); Social Committee (3-4).

"A cheery maid with a pleasant smile,
The giver of gladness all the while."

Stella is always heard before she is seen. Her clear rippling laughter rings out in every classroom and is responded to by the others in generous measure. This happy-go-lucky carefree lassie shall pass through Life with a song on her lips and a smile for everyone as she has passed through the corridors of dear old S. H. S.

STANLEY WIKER "Wicker" "Mennonite"

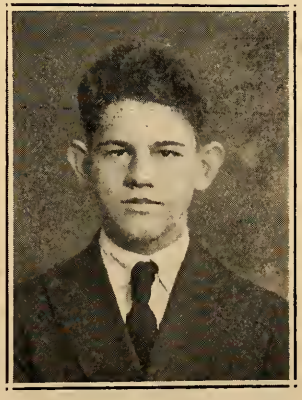
Commercial Course

Invitation Committee, Chairman (4); Commercial Club (3-4), Auditor (3), Reporter (4); Eleutherian Literary Society (2-4); Scientific Society (1-2); Class Track (2-3-4); Golf Club (4); Annual Staff (4); Mixed Chorus (4).

Lo and behold, ladies and gentlemen, undoubtedly the wonder of the ages! It was not very long ago that most of us thought he couldn't dance, but when hooked up with "Liz" he sure made the other jazz hounds look like novices, winning first prize in dancing. "Mennonite's" ministerial look, acute ear (?) and quiet disposition predominated wherever he went.



HENRY VANBROOKHOVEN

General Course

"Van" is one of the quiet members of the class. As one of Dr. Ostrum's chemistry students he has surpassed all. He hopes to become Lancaster's future Chemist and has asserted that his greatest discovery will be a preparation to change the color of red hair to golden yellow. He also fills the position of Librarian, has a great interest in the business, but never can fulfill your wants. Of course, this isn't Van's fault, as we all know.

Back row: William C. Wright, Paul W. Felker
Front row: Elizabeth Zahm, Helen Groff, Rebecca Young, Catherine Albright and Rose Levin

KATHARINE ALBRIGHT "Kitty"

Commercial Course

Athletic Club (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4).

We know a secret of Kit's and we must tell it. She likes country boys but after one accident that happened she better direct them the way to her home so they won't get lost. Katharine's favorite talk is "what our class did" but Kitty we can't all be as perfect as your class was?

PAUL WALTERS FELKER "Queer"

Commercial Course

One of the remnants of the class of 1922.

He is quite fond of the ladies but that is not, by any means a fault. With it all he deserves credit for wanting to graduate with our class. It's not certain whether or not he wanted to, ask Mr. List.

This young man has many ambitions. One is to be a cost accountant. Bookkeeping, this last year, was very easy for Paul, If he could not work out a transaction, somebody else could.

HELEN GROFF "Groffy"

Commercial Course

Athletic Club (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Varsity Basketball (4).

Helen is a fine athlete, cheer leader and commercial English student. She certainly can play basket ball and when it comes to cheer leading, 'nuf sed.' She has an unfailing store of Commercial English somewhere in her brain and always can explain points that no one else knows. "Groffy" wants to be a physical directoress and she is sure of success.

ROSE MINETTE LEVIN "Rose"

Commercial Course

Atheltic Association (4); Florentine Literary Society (3-4).

"The smile that wins,
The tints that glow."

A dainty Miss, this, with glowing tresses, sparkling eyes, and fair white hands, she has entranced many a willing youth by her winning ways. But Rose seems to prefer College boys. She is a divine little dancer and spends much of her time in the pursuit of this art (?). Rose is going to enter the General Hospital as a nurse in training. There is some "other" attraction there, I am told. However, Rose will surely make a very good nurse, (especially to college boys).

WILLIAM C. WRIGHT "Bill"

General Course

Cheer Leader (4); Scientific Society (4).

"Bill" is chiefly known for his ability as a student and a gunner Mr. Herr thinks he's a student and he thinks he's a gunner. When he walks out to amuse the rabbits he looks like the advance on Chateau Thierry, and a conservative estimate of the weight of his paraphernalia is his own weight squared. However we know that he'd succeed as a wooden Indian for a cigar store.

REBECCA YOUNG "Becky"

Commercial Course

Florentine Literary Society (3-4); Constitution Committee (3); Entertainment Committee of Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (4); Vidette Staff (4); Annual Staff (4).

Rebecca is the Literary Editor of the "Vidette" and it is partly through her efforts that the "Vidette" was such a great success this year. She is noted for her stately walk and her baby talk. Rebecca's fondest friend is her powder puff.

ELIABETH ZAHM

Commercial Course

Flower Committee.

As certain as you see Elizabeth you see Iva. Elizabeth is a novelist. She will someday twinkle as famous as Shakespeare, and make the class of Mid-1923 shine out forever. But this may all happen under a different name—

REBECCA TALL "Rebecca"

Commercial Course

Publicity Committee (4).

This is the young lady who has decided on her future career. She has chosen the "Road to Success". Her ambition is to become an efficient stenographer. Her only weakness is her great desire for debate. Many times our lessons are forgotten when Rebecca begins to debate, especially when she chooses religious topics.

Marybelle Millen, George Lebar and Rebecca Tall

GEORGE LEBAR "Sailor"

And here is George another member of the class of '22 who has found this class worth the while graduating with. George was quite a trackman during his early career at the High School, but due to accident enjoys the sport no longer. He is known to be the only originator of the real Southern Syncopated Jazz, and many are the times George has turned the school-day gloom into life again. He has many ambitions and great are the fortunes behind him, but we have concluded his future as a Vaudeville star.

MARYBELLE MILLEN "Timy"

Commercial Course

Here is the "Jazz Baby" of our class. When Marybelle sits down at the piano and plays those syncopated strains, our feet refuse to obey. Some day we shall hear of her as a leader of her own jazz band. Besides being a rival of Paul Whiteman's Orchestra, she does something most girls don't do—she minds her own business.

Societies

The Eleutherian Literary Society

President—Alexander Stein
Vice President—R. D. Hoak
Secretary—Paul Burkhart
Treasurer—Charles Bair
Critic—Maurice Cohen

The Eleutherian Literary Society closed, this year, a very successful semester. The programs were all well prepared and were the result of hard work on the part of the officers and the faculty advisors. Everyone who attended the meetings enjoyed them greatly.

The last meeting was a fitting climax to the good work done throughout the year. It was a combined literary and musical program, the High School Orchestra furnishing the music. All who attended agreed that it was the finest the Society ever put on.

So in conclusion, the retiring officers wish to express their gratitude for the help offered by our faculty advisors, Mr. H. E. Swartz, and Mr. C. L. Martin, and all who helped to make the society a success by appearing on the program. So we cannot but wish the best of success to the officers-elect, hoping that they will further the reputation of the Society and make it even better than we have done.

Commercial Club

President—Watson B. Lawyer, Jr.
Vice President—George Werner
Secretary—Henry G. Buckwalter
Treasurer—Alfred J. Flick
Reporter—Stanley Wiker

This club is back on its feet again and is doing fine work due to the enthusiastic attitude of the officers and advisors.

Much credit is due Mr. E. A. List and Mr. Allen L. Seltzer for their faithful service in many different respects to the club.

Despite the small membership of the club, the officers have done much to carry on the spirit that would have prevailed if many attended the meetings.

We expect and we know that the officers coming on are going to continue the work and carry out the same principles and strive toward the same goal with just as much enthusiasm and success.

With them go the best wishes of the retiring officers and members.

The Scientific Society

President—Edward Price, M'23
1st Vice President—William Andes, M'23
2nd Vice President—William Hoover '23
Secretary—Alexander Stein M'23
Treasurer—William Kinzer '23
Critic—Richard D. Hoak M'23
Librarian—William Scheid '23

The Scientific Society was organized in the Boys' High School on December 5, 1918. It was named the B. B. Herr Scientific Society in honor of the founder, Mr. Herr. It has been very successful thus far.

The membership of this society is not large because the meetings are held in the physics lecture room which holds a limited number. However the room is always crowded to its utmost capacity.

The aim of this society is to increase the interest in scientific work. Many practicable demonstrations are given in this society, which supplements the book of knowledge of science.

Boys' Combined Chorus and Glee Club

President—Richard Snyder
Vice President—Darius Delbo
Secretary—Harold Shaar

Last September about the fourth week of school, Miss Humphreville issued a call for changed and unchanged voices. There was a splendid response, an average of about 50 fellows. Sometime in November, the directress picked a glee club from the chorus. This organization proved to be equal if not better than last year's glee club. Both of these groups made up a large part of the annual concert, given by both schools.

It is hoped that the club may secure several engagements in and about the county. A great amount of the credit should be given to the instructer who worked incessantly to get the fellows into shape. And then, last but not least, thanks to George Glick, for working so faithfully, as the club's accompanist.

The Hawthorne Literary Society has just closed one of its most successful semesters. The fellows showed a better spirit than usual, and the meetings were fairly well attended. However, this does not mean that there is no chance for improvement. There is! And a very big one. All classes were well represented in the Society with the exception of the Juniors. In a word to the members of that class, we can say that now is the time to gain experience in managing the affairs of the Society. We sincerely hope that you will show a much better spirit next semester. The Sophomores deserve special praise for their large attendances. They turned out better than any other class, Seniors included.

Three meetings were held this semester, and the Society closed its year with a rousing meeting on January 10. A play was presented entitled "The Great Medical Dispensary" which was well received. This was an open meeting and a large number of outsiders were present and helped us enjoy the meeting. Selections by the orchestra, a reading, declamation and essay concluded the program.

The Golf Club

President—Solomon Brubaker
Vice President—Lloyd Piersol
Secretary—Kenneth Longsdorf
Treasurer—Oscar Witmer

The golf club was organized to comply with the wishes of a large segment of students of the Lancaster High School interested in golf.

The members of the club have been loyal and have supported its work with interest.

During the last semester the club conducted a tournament in which Solomon Brubaker was victor by the small margin of one "up" in thirty-six holes, over Earl Frey.

With the undivided support of its members, the success of the club is assured.

The Audubon Society

President—George Hosterman

Treasurer—Arthur Boardman

Secretary—James Apple

On October 30, 1922 Mr. Baker, instructor of Biology, called a meeting of all boys interested in the study of birds, their life, and their habits.

This group decided to become an active branch of the Junior Audubon Society of America. An Executive Committee was appointed consisting of: Harry Rudy, Warren Rehm, Fred Walker, Paul Eckman, and Daniel Schmidt.

Judging from the number of members present at the three meetings that were held it is assured that the society will be a decided success.

Florentine Literary Society

President—Laura Geltz

Vice President—Margaret Biemesderfer

Secretary—Louise Weaver

Treasurer—Gertrude Eby

The Florentine Literary Society has just completed one of the best years in its history.

The purpose of this society is to develop the girls' ability to speak before audiences, large or small; to obtain self-confidence, and also to bring forth the talents of those girls who have no other opportunity of displaying their ability.

The steady cooperation and good work of its members with the advisors have made it a success. The constant effort which was put forth by the officers in charge, caused each meeting to be more interesting and educational than any other held heretofore.

The programs which were rendered consisted of debates, orations, solos, readings, recitations and sketches. The sketches showed the generous amount of dramatic ability of Stevens High School.

The efforts of those participating seemed to be highly appreciated by the girls, as was shown by their marked attention during the presentation of the programs.

Stevens Scientific Society

President—Louise Roy
Vice President—Edith Smith
Secretary—Catherine Snyder
Treasurer—Frances Boyd

The Stevens Scientific Society was started under the capable leadership of Mr. Oller. The object of the society is to foster an active interest in things scientific among the pupils of Stevens High School. All members of either of the science classes are eligible for membership.

On December 20, the society held a very successful bazaar in the gym of the High School, in order to raise funds to purchase a radio set for the school. Booths for cake, candy, ice cream, pies, sandwiches, a fortune teller tent, a fish pond, music and cake walks were the features of the evening. Three-fourths of the necessary sum was realized at this affair.

Athenian Literary Society

The Athenian Literary Society has had a fine attendance at all its meetings. The fficers elected were:

President—Dorothy Buckwalter
Vice President—Ruey Sieger
Scretary—Grace Schaum
Treasurer—Arline Herr

A very delightful Christmas exercise was held Tuesday the 19th of December. The special features of the evening were a Christmas sketch called "The Christmas Spirit." The leading parts were taken by Martha Coy and Arline Herr. A vocal solo by Grace Schaum, recitation by Miriam Gamber and a Christmas reading by Ruth Leachey. We are looking forward to great success in the year 1923.

Athletic Association

There has recently been organized at Stevens High School an Athletic Association. The purpose of this organization is to broaden the scope of athletics, to create throughout the school a new and keener interest in all athletics, and to gain for its support the cooperation of every girl, whether or not she takes an active part in any kind of athletics.

Hitherto, basketball has been the chief and most successful form of athletics in the school. Through the Association more interest will be aroused in the games and the team wlil be given a better financial support and backing. The girls not on the teams can, by cooperating, raise money in various ways so that our team may have the opportunity to play teams in other cities and to show them how good we are and just what we can do.

It is also the aim of this organization to create an interest in hockey and tennis and all other forms of athletics, to organize a good hockey and tennis team and be able to play and win matches with other schools. All this is done in other schools and is possible here, but only by the hearty cooperation of every girl in the school.

All girls are eligible for membership in this organization and it is hoped that many will avail themselves of this opportunity for promoting all athletics and making them better and finer than they have ever been in the history of the school.

Tennis

This year's team started soon after the opening of school by the organization of the tennis club. The main feature of the season was a tournament held during September and October. Frances Hosterman, Mid 24, defeated Helen Groff, Mid 23, thereby winning the school championship. Frances Hosterman's playing was admired throughout the tournament because of her fine service, her good placement shots and her ability to cover the court. Next year more attention will be paid to tennis and it is hoped that Stevens High School will have a school team with which to compete with rival schools. Great interest has always been shown in tennis, and perhaps this plan will serve to create more.

Hockey

Hockey as a school sport is entirely new in Stevens High but promises to be very successful. This last season only about six practices were held because Miss Baker, the physical instructress, was not able to start early enough in the season, due to the late arrival of the sticks. However, from twenty-two to twenty-five girls came out to each practice and although no school or class teams were formed, the girls have a pretty good knowledge of what the game is like. Next fall, Miss Baker expects to start earlier in the season and to work up a team to represent our school in this branch of athletics.

Basket Ball

Although basketball always has been the most popular sport at Stevens High, this year it seems to be more popular than ever before. The girls did not start practicing until the beginning of December, but by the 15th of December, when the first game was held a fine team had been formed, consisting of the following girls: Laura Geltz and Helen Groff, forwards; Alma Dorsey, center; Hazel Gochenaur, side center; Mary Horting and Elsie Kreider, guards. The first game was played with Columbia on the home floor and won by the overwhelming score of 64—18 .Unfortunately in the last few minutes of the game, Mary Horting, our star guard was disqualified for future games thru an injury to her knee. It is thought that Genevieve Irvin or Marguerite Stearn will probably take her place in the games which remain to be played. After Commncement an entirely new team will be formed since Alma Dorsey, Hazel Gochenaur, Laura Geltz and Helen Groff will be lost by graduation. The following games will be played before Commencement:

January 13—Linden Hall—Away.
January 17—S. H. S. Alumnae—Away.
January 19—Carlisle High School—Away.
January 24—Coatesville High—Here.
January 27—Hanover High —Here.

Boys' Sport History

Lancaster High School can never overlook the good which the Mid-Year Class of 1923 has done in order to acquire an exceedingly good name for the school in athletic achievements and advertise the prowess of its able young sport contenders.

Truly speaking, our first year at Lancaster High, in reference to athletics, was not a successful one. However, that was no fault of ours. We entered Lancaster High in February, 1919, as members of the Mid-Freshmen class. Already the Interclass Basketball season was under way with the Freshmen team being composed of members of the Mid-Sophomore and regular Freshmen classes. Naturally Basketball was a new game to us and we were given little opportunity to make our efforts successful, with the result that not one of our classmates became members of the Freshmen team.

In Baseball and Track we were more fortunate for many of our classmates readily became members of the Freshmen team and aided materially in making them successful.

Then suddenly we became Mid-Sophomore but due to a ruling of the school we were forced to enter all sports as representatives of the Freshman class. However we were paired with the Class of 1923 to whom we owe a great deal of credit for having so nobly contributed in an effort to making our class teams worthy of mention.

It was in our second year that we started out to make a name for ourselves. As was mentioned before we were still inexperienced at Basketball but we began to develop slowly. We placed last in Basketball and Track that year but immediately forged to the front by tying the Sophomores for third place in the Interclass Baseball League. That was our first real success.

Another year had passed swiftly by and we were Juniors, yet representatives of the Sophomores in athletic struggles. At the close of the Interclass Basketball season we had advanced a step, being the occupants of third place. We also advanced in Track events that year by moving up to third place.

Baseball had always been our best sport for ascending into the hall of fame and that year we had an exceedingly fine team with the result that we occupied second place in the league standing, having nosed out both the Juniors and Freshmen. It also happened in that year that a few of our classmates entered the Tennis tournament and were highly successful, in fact, so successful that one of our classmates, John Schupp, finally emerged as the school champion.

Our three years of experience in athletic events had given us an undying spirit of courage and we entered into our last year with a determination to be an acknowledged victor or a worthy vanquished contender. As fate had designed we were to be suppressed by the Seniors in a great climax to a wonderful Interclass Basketball season. The Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores were very evenly matched and the games were extremely well contested. The Seniors were our jinx, although the Sophomores could conquer them and we could subdue the Sophomores. We lost the championship but not our fighting spirit and we prepared for the other sports. Some of the members of our class who composed the team were, Cowan, Weaver, Brunner, Schneebeli, Stroeble and Arms.

In both the Indoor Track meet and the Outdoor meet we placed second. Lawyer, Johns, Flick, Wiker and Brunner were the representatives of our class.

Then came our greatest success—when we won the Interclass Baseball Championship in the spring of 1922. The Seniors believed that they had the title won but by a brilliant finish, marked by flashy ball playing, we crushed them and climbed to the pedestal—Champions at last. Our classmates who aided materially in making the team a success were, Snyder, Schneebeli, Cowan and Brunner.

John Schupp once more distinguished himself by regaining the Tennis Championship in the fall of the year 1922 after having lost it in the spring.

And now during our last year at High we have contributed splendidly to the Varsity teams. On the Varsity Football team of 1922 our class was represented in the person of "Smoogs" Schneebeli, "Newt" Cowan, and "Duck" Brunner. These same fellows together with Captain Allen Boyer and "Don" Stroeble are members of the Varsity Basketball team. On the school Track team we were represented by Watson Lawyer, who performed in the Penn relays and several scholastic meets.

Although we never expect to see any of our class athletes become world's champions, still, we do expect to see them continue their good work when they leave Old High.

To the under-classmen we extend our sincere wish that they will heartily indulge in all branches of sports and do their best to make them worthy of Lancaster High School.

Mid-Senior Athletes

"Smoogs" Schneebeli—It is just natural for "Smoogs" to be an athlete because he comes from an athletic family. "Smoogs" was a halfback on the Football team, a Guard on the Varsity Basketball team and Second Baseman on the Class Baseball team.

"Don" Stroeble—"Don's" best sport is Basketball at which he always plays a clean and clever game. "Don" was also a member of the Football team but was not fortunate enough to win his letter.

"Al" Boyer—Frankly speaking "Al" is a basketball nut. "Al" has played on the Varsity teams at L. H. S. for three years and has been the captain of the team during this year. "Al" is also a good shortstop when playing baseball.

Watson Lawyer—Lawyer is a track man, having distinguished himself at the Penn Relays in 1922.

"Charlie" Arms—"Charlie" was a member of our Class Basketball team on which he played a clever game at forward. "Charlie" is also a baseball enthusiast.

"Newt" Cowan—"Newt" is one of Lancaster High's stellar athletes. A member of the Varsity Football and Basketball teams and the Class Baseball team is "Newt's" record.

"Johnny" Weaver—For three years "Johnny" has been a forward on our Class Basketball teams and has made quite a name for himself as an earnest worker.

"Johnny" Schupp—Outside of presiding over our class the last two years "Johnny" has found enough time to win the Tennis Championship of the school a few times and also make an enviable name for himself.

"Duck" Brunner—"Duck" was a member of the Football team, the Basketball team and the Class Baseball team.

"Bill" Snyder—When "Bill" is through with School he expects to take over the pitching duties of Stanley Coveleskie. "Bill" was the main factor in winning the Baseball Championship for our class in 1922.

Drippings From the Cider (Pa.) Press

A Confession

When the idea of starting a country newspaper first occurred to the Editors, they decided to choose their characters with a view to presenting humorous characterizations of members of the Mid-Senior Class. The names, Cider, Pa., and Cider Press were selected because the ideas were squeezd out of our brains with a great deal of effort, as cider is squeezed from a press.

Cider, Pa., represents Lancaster, The Cider Press, The Vidette; the drippings corresponding to the joke section.

The characters were chosen for their most ludicrous characteristics and these were enlarged upon.

Sheriff Pete Boggs took form in our minds as a very small man of an aggressive spirit and an officious aspect. It is usually the case that such a small man marries a large, thick woman. Therefore Abigail, the fat lady of our paper was chosen. These characters are:

Sheriff Peter Boggs .....Mr. Edward Price
Mrs. Abigail Boggs .....Miss Edith Harnly

Sim Parks was the unparalleled prevaricator of our paper. This fellow could tell more doubtful stories to the minute than any other citizen of Galosh County. Only one person is fit for the character, and he is:

Mr. Simpkins Parks .....Mr. D. R. McCollough

In almost every community, there exists the husky type of genus homo who is of a bashful nature when confronted by the opposite sex. Such a man usually possesses a spouse of pugnacious temperament. These characters found rise in:

Mr. Joseph Strong .....Mr. Melvin Brunner
Mrs. Amanda Strong .....Miss Marion Hocking

When we selected Inky White, as a character, the editors had no particular person in mind, but anyone who desires this office may get the same by applying to the editors during office hours:

Mr. Washington White .....Mr. X

Every town has its lanky maiden who attempts to reform all the men folks of the community. The chosen character was not selected because she carries out the duties of a Helping Hand but because she best suited the type. The vehicle of piety chosen is:

Miss Desire Pazely .....Miss Mamie Breneman

Gramma Spotts—the one and only—she is the human newspaper in Cider, and if you want to find out anything about anything—just ask Gramma. Deacon Hi Spotts, her worthy husband, is one of the pillars of the Cider Mennonite Church. But he has two weaknesses: one of which Doc Payne sells him and the other is Aurora Higgins:

Mrs. Sadie Spotts .....Miss Rose Canter
Hon. Hiram Spotts .....Mr. Stanley Wiker

Our village dumbbell who perpetrated such dumbbellious and nonsensical acts and remarks, found root in the person of the warped pedal appendages, known as:

Mr. Jedediah Bean .....Mr. Henry Buckwalter

On account of our class being so prolific in wits and jokesters it was exceedingly difficult for the Editors to select a member to characterize the town jokesmith, Lem Hicks. After 45 ballots, a candidate was elected by a margin of two votes. The successful gentleman is:

Mr. Lemuel Hicks .....Mr. Wm. David Andes

The most noted storekeeper in our class, a gentleman whose hand has figured quite prominently in matters of Weight, was chosen for the character of Si Weatherbee. As every storekeeper has a wife who, with every yard of cloth sold, hands out a mile of words, and is a member of the "Back Fence Gossip Club" of which Gramma Spotts is President, we chose one of the voluble members of our class:

Mr. Silas Weatherbee .....Mr. Watson B. Lawyer
Mrs. Elizabeth Weatherbee .....Miss Bertha Lestz

Abe Smeltz, the profuse imbiber of liquid lightning and his wife, Henrietta Smeltz, the religious worker, are personages who might crop up in any town. The alcoholic gentleman and his pious sharp-tongued wife were immediately found in the characters of:

Mr. Abraham Smeltz .....Mr. Earl Jeffries
Mrs. Henrietta Smeltz .....Miss Rebecca Young

Doc Payne, the town M. D. and domestic advisor, who is also prominently connected with the social and political affairs of the town is:

Ignatius Payne, M. D. .....Mr. John R. Hertzler

The village Irishman or Scandinavian is also a well know fixture, one or the other being present in nearly every well ordered community. The Irishman, Pat McCann, whose broad brogue and quaint actions amused our readers took rise in the well known Irishman in our class, who is:

Mr. Patrick McCann .....Mr. Morose Cohen

The village belle or vamp, who makes all the men sit up and take notice, who causes more divorces in one week than the marriage bureau can replace, whose beauty is the sore spot of all the village dames, and whose affairs are the talk of the town, has been heard of even in Adamstown. The member of the Mid-Senior Class from whom the inspiration for this character has derived is:

Miss Aurora Higgins .....Miss Elizabeth Shubrooks

Conclusion

The present editors, hoping to graduate from High School, it becomes incumbent upon them to select some members of the class immediately following to carry on this work, and perpetuate the name and fame of the former worthies. The persons selected, because of their wit, humor, good looks (?) and natural lack of intelligence are John Bassler and Luther Storm.

In conclusion, we hope that the readers of our literary (?) efforts have got as much pleasure from the reading as we have had from the writing thereof; we thank all the contributors and applicants to the Matrimonial Bureau, of which there were many; and at last we say, "Farewell."
